1964 DODGE CHARGER

HEMI PROTOTYPE CONCEPT CAR

Charger

This car is the very first car to use the name Dodge Charger. A painstaking five year restoration has brought this car back to amazing original condition. Chrysler archives provided the original and very detailed pictures to put this car back to its original design orchestrated by one of the top Concours winning restorers. Hemi guru John Arruzza rebuilt the oldest known existing Hemi engine, 10th block cast and date 10/63.

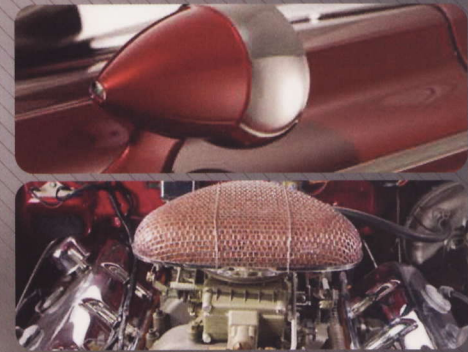

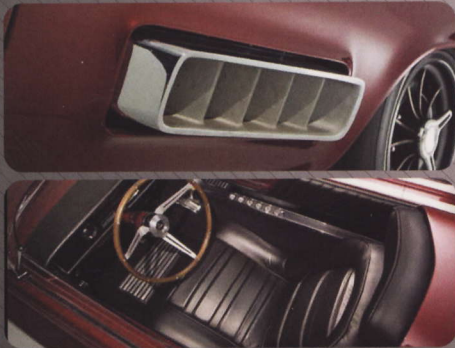

This Concept Car has appeared in the following magazines among others and was the cover car for Collectible Automobile
